

2011 Driver of the Year

Harley Ledford Wal-Mart Transportation LLC

Tennessee Trucking Association's 2011 Driver of the Year is Harley Ledford, a professional driver for Wal-Mart Transportation, LLC. Harley has been a professional driver for over 43 years. During his tenure with Wal-Mart, he has exceeded 2.3 million accident free miles. Throughout his entire professional driving career he has driven over 4.3 million miles.

In addition to his years of professional, safe, courteous driving, Harley has been instrumental in advancing the interests of the truck driving profession. He has been extremely active in Wal-Mart's Commitment to Safety Program. In this program he provides professional instruction to high school students on safety aspects of operating a vehicle in the presence of tractors and trailers on the roadways. Harley has made presentations to approximately 18 high schools in the Northeast Tennessee area over the past 3 years.

He continues to reach out in the community with several different programs at Wal-Mart, making a difference in the lives of others, no matter what he does. He even takes time out of his busy schedule to reach out to critical and special needs people with the Wal-Mart Heart Program. Harley continues to be an Ambassador for the Transportation Industry and Tennessee Trucking Association, serving as one of the 2009 Road Team Captains.

Harley enjoys spending time with his wife Winnie, working outdoors, and being involved with his Church, giving back to family, Church and community.

He has always worked hard to be a true example of a professional driver. Tennessee is truly honored to have Harley Ledford as our 2011 Driver of the Year. The members of the Tennessee Trucking Association thank him for his service and for being such a good representative of the trucking industry.

Congratulations!

